

Your Encouragement

- Journaling is a great way to archive ideas, track progress, and document goals. Keep them!
- When God gives you a direction, a “hint” of something to come, write it down even though it may seem unlikely, impossible, or unrelated at the time. He gave it to you for a reason. Time will reveal.
- Your love for something (your passion) often becomes your purpose, that when lived, becomes your STORY.
- What are you afraid of? Public speaking, flying, snakes, failure, loss, missing out...? God can and routinely does ask us to overcome our fears so that we can serve Him better.

Your Empowerment

Stay open to nudges!

When we stay open to God’s nudging, we allow Him to work through us in mighty ways. It requires a willingness to listen to His voice and be obedient to His leading. This means being open to stepping out of our comfort zones and taking risks, even when it doesn’t make sense or seems impossible. When we trust God and follow His direction, we can accomplish things that we never thought possible. This might be speaking truth in difficult situations, serving others sacrificially, or pursuing a new direction in life. By staying open to God’s nudging, we can experience the fullness of His plans for our lives and make a powerful impact on the world around us.

When we know we’re answering a request God made of us, we have more confidence and clarity. Our fears will try to derail us, oh yes they will. But, by overcoming our fears we can fulfill our purpose, make the difference we were created to make difference, and ultimately glorifying God and all that we do. Hoot, hoot! That’s living the life!

Good work Ladies!!!
